 - g. To maintain relations with FIFA, the IOC, international sport organizations, as well as with other continental football confederations and zonal unions;
 - h. To promote football free from discrimination against any country, person or group of persons, be it the grounds of ethnicity, gender, disability, language, religion and/or politics.
 - i. To encourage national associations and public authorities to do their utmost to work towards the professional and social development of footballers;
 - j. To fight against doping, and to take the necessary measures to combat the use of prohibited substances in order to protect the health of footballers and the credibility of the competitions;
 - k. To promote friendly relations between National Associations, zonal unions, clubs, officials and players;
 - l. To ensure the independence of the management of African football, and avoid any form of political interference
 - m. To adhere to the fundamental principles of the Olympic Movement and to undertake:
 - i. The promotion of peace, solidarity, fraternity and unity among footballers, officials, and clubs; both in Africa and Worldwide;

- ii. To support the measures undertaken by the African Union and by other non-governmental organizations in favour of the youth, development of sport, culture, and education.
 - n. To partake in the fight against scourges ravaging and/or posing a threat to the continent and humanity; in cooperation with the United Nations, the African Union, and other specialized organizations;
2. CAF and its Members are required to comply at all times and unreservedly with the principles of good governance, integrity, ethics, transparency, accountability, international auditing accounting and financial practices, sportsmanship; as well as with the Statutes, regulations, decisions and directives of FIFA.
3. Any person or organization involved in football in Africa has to respect at all times and unreservedly the principles of ethics and fair play enacted by CAF, the principles of integrity and sportsmanship as well as the Statutes, regulations, decisions and directives of CAF and FIFA.
4. CAF shall respect the human rights recognized internationally.

ARTICLE 3

OFFICIAL LANGUAGES

1. The official languages of CAF shall be French, English and Arabic.
2. All CAF official documents sent to the national associations are written in French, English or Arabic. Members shall be responsible for having these documents translated into their respective country's official language.
3. French, English, Arabic and Portuguese shall be the official languages of the General Assembly. Professional interpreters will ensure translation is made in these languages.
4. In the event of a discrepancy in the interpretation of texts, the French version shall be authoritative.

ADMISSION

1. The Confédération Africaine de Football shall be open to the candidacy of any African national associations as being the official representatives managing football in a country recognized as independent and which is a member of United Nations (UN).
2. The Executive Committee may grant temporary membership; however, such membership shall be submitted to the next General Assembly for approval.
3. The General Assembly shall decide whether to admit, withdraw, suspend or expel a member.
4. CAF recognizes only one national association per country.

ARTICLE 5

ADMISSION PROCEDURE

1. Any African National Association applying for CAF membership shall submit an application to CAF General Secretariat; together with a declaration affirming that it shall comply at all times with CAF Statutes, Regulations, directives and decisions, with the Laws of the Game as enacted by IFAB, as well as with the jurisdiction of the Court of Arbitration for Sport.
2. Such application shall be accompanied by a copy of the Statutes and Rules and Regulations of the applicant Association. Any subsequent amendments to those texts shall be communicated to CAF Secretariat within fourteen (14) days of such amendments.

3. Applications must be accompanied by the first year's membership fee, as determined by the current Statutes.

 - d. To Respect the Laws of the Game;
 - e. To Respect CAF's Code of Ethics and universal values; and observe its rules and regulations.
 - f. To Implement a system for granting licenses to clubs; in accordance with CAF club licensing regulations. Furthermore, such members shall include these obligations and determine, in their respective Statutes, the competent bodies for granting and revoking club licenses.
 - g. To manage their affairs independently and free of intrusions and interferences of any kind by any person or body;
 - h. To set up a Referees committee, directly subordinate to the concerned Member Association.
 - i. Respect the World Anti-Doping Code and observe its rules and regulations.
 - j. To submit to the CAF Secretariat, annual audited financial statements in accordance with local and international auditing, accounting and financial practices. The audited financial statements shall be prepared by a locally or internationally registered auditing firm and shall be submitted no later than 6 months following the end of the National Association's financial year;
 - k. To adopt and implement the CAF Safety and Security Regulations within their respective National Associations;

- I. To organize their competitions and fixtures in compliance with the CAF and FIFA calendar and competitions. Each Member shall also send to CAF a copy of its calendar and fixtures at least 2 months before the start of its season and in any event 3 weeks before the publication of its calendar.
2. Any proved violation of these obligations shall lead to sanctions as provided for in the current Statutes.
3. The violation of Article 7.1.g) shall also entail sanctions, regardless of whether the infringement was attributed to the concerned member, or not. Each member association is responsible towards CAF for any and all acts of the members of their bodies caused by the negligence or willful misconduct of such members.

ARTICLE 8 SUSPENSION

1. The General Assembly has the capacity to suspend any Member.
The Executive Committee may suspend, with immediate effect, any member found guilty of serious violations of its obligations. Such suspension shall remain in effect until the next General Assembly unless the Executive Committee lifts it.
2. Any suspension decided by the Executive Committee must be ratified by a three-quarters majority of votes cast at the next General Assembly. Should a majority vote not be obtained, such sanction shall automatically be lifted with immediate effect. Any decision submitted to the General Assembly must indicate the period of suspension.
3. Suspended members shall automatically forego all rights and privileges pertaining to their membership. All other members shall immediately cease sporting contact with the suspended member association; failing which they shall be subject to the sanctions imposed by the Disciplinary Board.
4. Members who have not participated in at least one (1) CAF official competition over a period of two (2) consecutive years shall be deprived of their right to vote at a General Assembly, and from the support and financial assistance of CAF, until the fulfilment of this obligation.

ARTICLE 9 EXPULSION

1. The General Assembly may expel a member solely at the request of CAF Executive Committee if the member has been found guilty of a serious violation of the Statutes, Rules and Regulations, CAF directives & decisions, or Code of Ethics of CAF and FIFA.
2. The Executive Committee may, without a vote of the General Assembly, temporarily suspend with immediate effect a member association that is found guilty of a serious violation of its obligations. A suspension approved by the Executive Committee shall be in effect until the next General Assembly, unless the Executive Committee has revoked such suspension prior to such General Assembly.
3. The presence of an absolute majority of Members eligible to vote at the General Assembly is necessary for an expulsion to be valid; as well as the three-quarters majority of the votes validly cast.

8. National Associations wishing to submit an item for inclusion on the agenda of the General Assembly shall submit such proposal to CAF Secretariat in writing at least ninety (90) days before the date of the meeting. Such proposal shall be accompanied by a concise explanation of the reasons for the proposal.
9. Each National Association shall be entitled to a single vote.
10. The Executive Committee may convene an Extraordinary General Assembly Meeting.
11. An Extraordinary General Assembly Meeting shall be convened by the Executive Committee within sixty (60) days of CAF's receipt of a written request from at least two thirds (2/3) of the members. Only the items on the agenda shall be discussed at such a meeting.
12. The Agenda of the Extraordinary General Assembly may not be amended.
13. Members shall be notified of the Agenda, forty-five (45) days before the date of an Extraordinary General Assembly Meeting, such notice to include the date, and venue of the meeting.
14. The Agenda of any General Assembly may be amended provided that three quarters (3/4) of the member associations present at the General Assembly and eligible to vote agree to such motion.
15. The quorum for all meetings shall consist of two-thirds of the National associations affiliated to CAF at that specific time for the deliberations to be valid.
16. If the requirement for a quorum is not met at the General Assembly, the meeting shall be reconvened after a period of twenty-four (24) hours. At such reconvened meeting, the presence of half of the members present plus one shall constitute its quorum.
17. Official delegates to the General Assembly must be "Bona Fide" members of the National Association they represent. They must be appointed by the relevant body, and must be citizens of the concerned country.
18. Decisions shall be taken by simple majority unless indicated otherwise. However, and only in the event of a tie in votes, the President of the Confederation votes.

19. The Rules of Procedure of CAF General Assembly shall apply to all procedural matters during the proceedings of the General Assembly.

ARTICLE 18

ELECTIONS, REQUISITE MAJORITY, VOTING

1. Elections shall be conducted by secret ballot.
2.
 - 2.a. At least one CAF affiliated national association may nominate a candidate for CAF Presidency.
 - 2.b. A candidature for CAF Presidency shall only be admitted if supported, in writing, by at least three (3) CAF affiliated national associations, including CAF affiliated national association of the candidate concerned.
 - 2.c. Any CAF affiliated national association cannot nominate and/or support more than one candidate.
3. A candidate for CAF Presidency shall have played an active role in football (as a Player or as an Official within FIFA, CAF, or a CAF affiliated national association or within one of its affiliated members) for at least two (2) of the last five years preceding his candidacy.
4. A National Association must only nominate one candidate. The outgoing President shall be eligible for re-election subject to the application of article 22 para 8 of the present Statutes.
5. Names of candidates nominated for election to CAF Executive Committee and FIFA Council must be submitted by the relevant National Association to CAF General Secretariat at least four (4) months prior to the date of the election. All outgoing members shall be eligible for re-election subject to the application of article 22 para 8a & 8b of the present statutes.
6. Nominations received after the deadline (as attested by the date on the postmark of the Cairo Post Office) shall be automatically rejected. Nominations shall be sent to the Secretariat by registered mail with acknowledgement of receipt, or by express courier, as attested by the enclosed receipt.
7. After the above-mentioned deadline, all candidature nominations shall be final and shall be submitted to vote unless withdrawn by the candidate concerned in the case of the personal withdrawal of the candidate by any means.
8. CAF Secretariat shall communicate the names of the candidates to all National Associations along with the notice convening the meeting and the Agenda of the Assembly.
9. At the time of their election, all candidates nominated to the Presidency and CAF Executive Committee must be "Bona Fide" members of their National Associations.
10. Any vacancy in the FIFA Council shall be provided for according to the terms established in FIFA Statutes and FIFA Governance Regulations.
11. For the election of the President, an absolute majority (half the votes plus one) of valid votes recorded shall be required. If no candidate obtains an absolute majority of the votes cast in the first ballot, a further ballot shall be conducted and this process shall continue until one candidate obtains an absolute majority. The two candidates with the two highest votes shall proceed to the next round where a simple majority will be required and all other candidates shall be eliminated. In any case, where there is a single candidate, he is elected unopposed by acclamation.
12. If the number of candidates submitted to the Executive Committee by the National Associations of a single zone is higher than the number of members to be elected, the election shall be conducted by secret ballot. If the number of candidates equals that of the number of members to be elected, they shall be declared elected unopposed.

- 13.a. In addition to the position allotted to CAF President, six (6) other African Members of the FIFA Council shall be elected to the FIFA Council, including at least one (1) woman.
 - 13.b. Any candidate to the FIFA Council, including for CAF Presidency, can present his/her candidacy to only one of the categories listed in article 18.13.a
 - 13.c. Any female candidate can submit her candidacy within categories 1 to 3, as well as to CAF Presidency, without consideration of gender, whereby any candidate (male or female) obtaining the highest number of statutory votes will be elected.
 - 13.d. The female candidate having obtained the highest number of statutory votes among the female candidates within Category 4 will automatically be elected, in accordance with article 33.5 of the FIFA Statutes.
 - 13.e. In the eventuality that the number of African representatives at the FIFA Council is modified, CAF Executive Committee will adopt the required modifications.
14. For the election of CAF and FIFA Council members, an absolute majority (half the votes plus one) shall be required in the first round. If no candidate obtains an absolute majority in the first ballot, then further ballots shall be conducted until an absolute majority is obtained. This Process shall continue until the candidates obtain an absolute majority for all the vacant posts in their respective categories and/or zones.
15. If a candidate is elected in the first ballot and in the event of a further ballot being conducted to fill another vacant seat, then the remaining candidate(s) shall be eligible for election, unless one or more candidates withdraw.
16. The election of the presidents and vice-presidents of the judicial bodies and the Governance and the committee of audit and compliance of CAF shall be by simple majority of members eligible to vote.
17. Unless otherwise stipulated in the Statutes, a simple majority shall suffice for a decision to be valid.
18. Only members present and duly authorized shall be entitled to vote.
19. Votes by proxy or by correspondence shall not be accepted.
20. Delegates may only represent one National Association.
21. Members of the Executive Committee may not represent their national association during their term of office.
22. The Chairman will conduct General Assembly's proceedings in compliance with the Rules of Procedure of the General Assembly.

ARTICLE 19

AMENDMENTS TO THE STATUTES, REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE APPLICATION OF THE STATUTES, AND TO THE RULES OF PROCEDURE OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Only the General Assembly may amend the Statutes, the Regulations Governing the Application of:

1. The Statutes, and the Rules of Procedure of CAF General Assembly.
2. Any proposal for amendments of Statutes by the Executive Committee or by a Member must be submitted in writing accompanied by a brief synopsis to CAF Secretariat. Proposals submitted by members shall only be valid if they are seconded in writing by at least two (2) other Members, and accompanied with a concise statement of motives.
3. For an amendment of the Statutes to be passed, two-thirds of the Members eligible to vote must be present at the opening of the session.
4. Proposals for amendment to the Statutes shall only be adopted if three-quarters of the eligible Members vote in favour.

5. Proposals for amendment to the Regulations Governing the Application of the Statutes or the Rules of Procedure of the General Assembly shall only be adopted if a simple majority of the eligible Members vote in favour.

ARTICLE 20 MINUTES

1. The Secretary General shall be responsible for recording the minutes at the General Assembly Meeting.
2. The minutes of the General Assembly shall be checked by those Members so designated.
3. The minutes of the General Assembly shall be sent to the national associations within ninety (90) days of the closing of the meeting.
4. Unless notification to the contrary is received by registered mail within sixty (60) days of the date of dispatch, it shall be assumed that the minutes have been approved.
5. In case of disagreement, this matter shall be included on the agenda of the next General Assembly.

ARTICLE 21 ENTRY INTO FORCE OF DECISIONS

1. Decisions taken by the General Assembly shall be binding on the national associations and shall enter into force immediately after adoption unless the General Assembly acting in its sovereign capacity resolves to implement such decisions at a later date.

ARTICLE 22 COMPOSITION OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

1. The Executive Committee elected by the General Assembly shall comprise:
 - One (1) President;
 - Thirteen (13) members representing the zonal unions;
 - One (1) female member;
 - Six (6) African representatives on the FIFA Council. These members will assist at the meetings of CAF Executive Committee.

The African representatives to the FIFA council shall have the same rights as the ones of the Executive Committee members including the right to vote.

was as a result of circumstances that were beyond the control of the Member, League or Club;

- ii. Any additional sanction that the CAF Judicial Bodies may deem fit.

ARTICLE 46 DISPUTES

1. National associations, leagues, clubs or members of clubs shall not be permitted to bring before a court of law disputes with CAF or other Associations, clubs or members of clubs. They shall submit any such disputes to an arbitrator appointed by mutual agreement and fully comply with his decisions.
2. Should the laws of a country entitle the concerned national association and its clubs and their members to appeal to a Court of Law, the national association shall insert a clause in its Statutes, by which it, along with its clubs and their members, freely renounces that right, and undertakes to accept the decisions of the arbitrators selected.
3. In the event of a disagreement between two (2) or more associations, and if the associations concerned are unable to agree upon the choice of an arbitrator, the Executive Committee shall have the right to make a decision on the matter. This decision shall be final and binding upon the associations concerned.
4. National associations must strictly adhere to the decisions taken by CAF or by CAF-designated arbitrators, and where these decisions concern a club, a zonal union or a league, the latter must take the necessary steps to observe such decisions.
5. Associations violating any of the clauses of this Article shall be expelled from the Confederation, in conformity with the provisions of the current Statutes.
6. In disputes referred to the competent bodies of CAF, the national associations may not, apart from their "Bona Fide" members, be assisted by a person belonging to one of the bodies of CAF.

ARTICLE 47 PRINCIPLES AND SANCTIONS

1. Members and leagues agree to comply fully with any final decisions taken by the competent CAF and FIFA bodies, which are, in accordance with the provisions of these Statutes, not subject to appeal.
2. They agree to take all necessary steps to ensure that their own Members, players and officials comply with these decisions.
3. This obligation shall also apply to licensed match agents and licensed players' agents.
4. Any violation of the aforementioned provisions shall be punished in accordance these Statutes.

ARTICLE 48 COURT OF ARBITRATION FOR SPORT (CAS)

ARTICLE 52 RIGHTS PERTAINING TO CAF COMPETITIONS AND EVENTS

1. CAF and the national associations shall be the legal owners of all rights arising from competitions and other events which fall under their respective areas of responsibility; without restriction, as to content, time, location, or law. These rights shall include, among others, all kinds of pecuniary rights, audio-visual recording rights, reproduction and broadcasting rights, multimedia rights and marketing and promotional rights, as well as intellectual property rights covering emblems, for example, and copyright.
2. The Executive Committee shall decide how and to what extent these rights are exploited and draw up special provisions to this effect. The Executive Committee is sovereign in relation to the exploitation of these rights. It can also exploit them either directly, or with third parties, or delegate their exploitation totally or partially.

ARTICLE 53 CLUBS LICENCES

1. The Executive Committee shall define a Club Licensing System that shall include in particular:
 - a) Minimum criteria to be met by clubs to be eligible to take part in CAF competitions;
 - b) Club licensing procedures;
 - c) Minimum requirements to be applied by the licensors.
2. Member Associations shall apply a club licensing system in accordance with CAF's minimum requirements. They shall incorporate these requirements in their respective Statutes and define therein the competent bodies for granting licenses.

ARTICLE 54 DISSOLUTION OF CAF

CAF may only be dissolved by a four-fifths majority of members present at the opening of a General Assembly. If CAF is dissolved, all financial obligations shall be honoured and the balance shall be remitted to FIFA, for the benefit of African Football.

ARTICLE 55 UNFORESEEN CIRCUMSTANCES

1. CAF Executive Committee shall decide any matters not provided for by the current Statutes or cases of force majeure, and such decisions shall take immediate effect.
2. Decisions regarding legislative matters shall be submitted to the next General Assembly for approval.

ARTICLE 56 PROHIBITED RELATIONS

No combinations or alliances between CAF National Associations or Members or between leagues or clubs affiliated, directly or indirectly, to different CAF National Associations or Members may be formed without the prior permission of CAF.

ARTICLE 57 ADOPTION OF THE STATUTES

These Statutes were adopted by CAF Ordinary General Assembly held in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia on 22nd October July 2024. These Statutes shall enter into force immediately after their adoption.

RULES ON THE PROCEDURES OF CAF GENERAL ASSEMBLY

ARTICLE 1

Each association may be represented at the General Assembly by a maximum of three (3) delegates, all of whom may take part in the deliberations.

Each zonal union may be represented by its Secretary General and possibly by one (1) other member; who may take part in the deliberations, without voting rights.

ARTICLE 2

CAF shall bear the costs of travel and accommodation for two (2) delegates from each national association and one (1) representative from each zonal union.

ARTICLE 3

Names of delegates from each National Association shall be prioritized from one (1) to three (3) for voting purposes and transmitted to CAF Secretariat before the opening of the General Assembly.

If the first delegate is absent from the meeting room, another delegate shall exercise the voting right in accordance with the list previously submitted.

ARTICLE 4

CAF President shall chair the discussions of the General Assembly. If the President is absent, the first Vice-President shall deputize, failing which the second Vice-President shall chair the meeting, failing which the third Vice-President shall chair the meeting, failing which the fourth Vice-President shall chair the meeting, failing which the fifth Vice-President shall chair the meeting.

In the absence of CAF President and the five (5) vice-presidents, the longest-serving Executive Committee member, present at the General Assembly, shall chair the meeting.

ARTICLE 5

The Chairman of the meeting shall ensure that the current Rules of Procedure are observed. He shall open and close the sessions. Additionally, he shall give speakers permission to take the floor and shall conduct the discussions.

ARTICLE 6

The Chairman shall keep order and may impose the following sanctions against delegates who disrupt the proceedings, as follows:

- Call to order,
- Reprimand,
- Expulsion from one or more sessions.

In the event of a protest, the General Assembly shall take a decision with immediate effect, without prior discussion.

ARTICLE 7

Official interpreters shall be responsible for the simultaneous interpretation of the deliberations into the official languages of the General Assembly (French, English, Arabic and Portuguese).

ARTICLE 8

At the outset of the first session, the General Assembly shall designate scrutineers deemed necessary tasked with helping the Secretary General conduct votes and elections; by counting votes expressed by a show of hands, distributing and counting ballot papers, etc...

The Executive Committee may decide to use electronic voting devices.

ARTICLE 9

A brief report shall be presented before any discussions by the representative of the body or Member which has included the item in question on the meeting agenda.

ARTICLE 10

After presentation of the report, the Chairman shall open the discussions and give the floor to the speakers in order of requests received. No one may take the floor without permission.

A speaker may only be given the floor for a second time on the same matter when all other delegates who have requested the floor have had a chance to speak.

ARTICLE 11

All proposals shall be presented in writing and must be related to the subject being discussed, failing which they shall be rejected.

Any amendments to such proposals shall be made in writing and submitted to the Chairman, who shall be the only person authorized to introduce them for discussion.

ARTICLE 12

The discussions on the main subject of a proposal shall be suspended once a motion on a point of order has been put forward. If necessary, the President shall put the motion to vote.

If a motion to close the debate is put forward, it shall immediately be put to vote without prior discussion. If it is adopted, only delegates who requested to speak before the vote shall be given the floor.

ARTICLE 13

Voting on elections shall be conducted by secret ballot.

Any decision requiring a vote, with the exception of the one concerning the transfer of CAF headquarters, shall be reached by show of hands (voting card) or by means of electronic voting devices.

If a request is supported by at least a quarter of the Members present and eligible to vote, voting may exceptionally take place by roll call. Members shall be called in French alphabetical order.

ARTICLE 14

An absolute majority (half plus one) or other required majority (two-thirds, three-quarters, four-fifths, etc.) shall, if required, be based on the number of votes cast. Abstentions shall be disregarded in calculating the majority.

ARTICLE 15

Before any vote, the Chairman or the person appointed by him shall read out the proposal and explain to the General Assembly the voting procedures (quorum, required majority). In the event of an objection, the General Assembly shall take an immediate decision on the matter without prior discussion.

ARTICLE 16

Proposals shall be put to the vote in order of submission. If there are more than two main proposals, they shall be put to the vote one after the other and each delegate may only vote for one of the proposals.

Sub-amendments shall be voted on before the proposed amendment. A proposed amendment shall be voted on before the original proposal. Proposals which are unopposed shall be considered adopted. The Chairman shall announce the results of the votes to the General Assembly.

No one shall be given the floor during a vote or until the result of a vote has been announced.

ARTICLE 17

All elections shall be held by secret ballot using the ballot papers distributed by the Secretary General, with the assistance of the scrutineers, shortly before the election. The number of distributed ballot papers shall be announced by the Secretary General before the voting commences.

If the number of ballot papers collected from the ballot box is equal or inferior to the number of distributed ballot papers, the election shall be considered valid.

If the number of ballot papers exceeds the figure distributed, the election shall be declared null and void and shall be re-conducted immediately.

ARTICLE 18

Only one ballot paper shall be used for electing the required number of CAF Executive Committee and/or FIFA Council members and representatives who shall represent the different zones.

ARTICLE 19

The majority required for all elections shall be calculated on the number of valid ballot papers obtained from the ballot box. Blank or spoiled ballot papers shall be disregarded.

If two or more votes are given to one candidate on the same ballot paper, only one shall be considered valid.

After every vote, the Chairman of the meeting shall announce the result of the election to the General Assembly.

ARTICLE 20

The Secretary General shall place counted ballot papers in envelopes made specifically for this purpose, and they shall be immediately sealed.

The Secretary General shall keep the envelopes and destroy them one (1) year after the closing of the General Assembly.

ARTICLE 21

The current Rules of Procedure of CAF General Assembly were adopted by CAF Ordinary General Assembly, held in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia on 22 October 2024, and shall enter into force immediately after their adoption.
