

Opta Facts – TotalEnergies CAF Confederation Cup

USM Alger – RS Berkane

21 April 2024

- USM Alger and RS Berkane will face each other for the first time in the CAF Confederation Cup. Both sides have shared three of the last four titles in the competition (2020 and 2022 for RS Berkane, 2023 for USM Alger).
- RS Berkane are unbeaten in their last 10 games in the CAF Confederation Cup (W6 D4). Their last defeat was in the first leg of the 2022 semi-final against TP Mazembe (0-1).
- USM Alger are the long-range experts at this CAF Confederation Cup – four of their 10 goals have been scored from outside the box, that's more than any other team.
- Only Dreams FC (14) have scored more goals than RS Berkane (13) in this season's CAF Confederation Cup. However, Berkane have been the most potent aerial threat, scoring five headers which is more than any other team.
- RS Berkane are the side with the most high turnovers in the CAF Confederation Cup (65). They have scored twice following a possession that began 40m or less from the opponent's goal, more than any other team.
- USM Alger full-back Saâdi Redouani is the only player to complete 20+ crosses in the CAF Confederation Cup this season (20 out of 54 attempts).

Opta Facts – TotalEnergies CAF Confederation Cup

Zamalek – Dreams FC

21 April 2024

- Zamalek and Dreams FC will face off for the first time in the CAF Champions League/CAF Confederation Cup. This will be Zamalek's fifth game against a Ghanaian side in those competitions after meeting Ashanti Gold in 1997 (1-3, 2-0) and Berekum Chelsea in 2012 (2-3, 1-1).
- Zamalek have lost just one of their last 19 games in the CAF Confederation Cup (W11, D7), it was against RS Berkane in the first leg of the 2019 final (0-1).
- Dreams FC are the top scorers at this season's CAF Confederation Cup, with 14 goals in eight matches. 10 of those 14 goals have been scored in the second-half.
- Zamalek have completed 3,348 passes in this season's CAF Confederation Cup, that's 530 more than their closest rival (RS Berkane with 2,818 completed passes).
- Four of Zamalek's 11 goals in this season's CAF Confederation Cup have been scored from corner-kicks. That's more than any other team.
- This match will bring together the top three for most goal involvements in this season's CAF Confederation Cup: Dreams FC's John Antwi and Abdul Aziz Issah (4 goals, 2 assists each) and Zamalek's Zizo (3 goals, 3 assists).